

Past Presidents of the Pennsylvania Academy of Science

The first PAS president, Otto Jennings, who was Curator of the Carnegie Museum, and an early supporter of the formation of the Academy. In the past 100 years, many others have filled the same shoes and are sampling of the great scientists that have lived and worked in Pennsylvania. Below is a gallery of past PAS Presidents, their institution when president, and the year(s) they served.

Otto E. Jennings
Carnegie Museum/Pitt
1925-1926

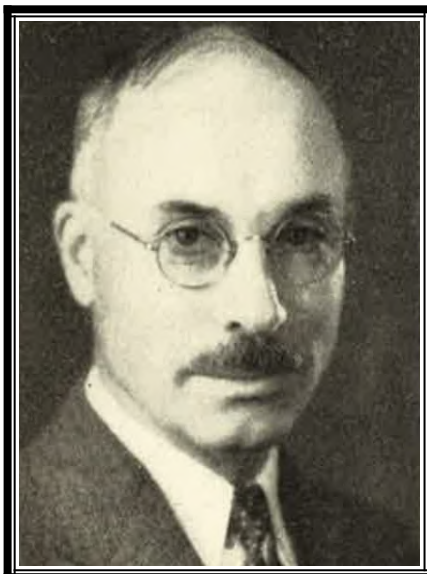

Benjamin L. Miller
Lehigh University
1926-1927

Norman H. Stewart
Bucknell University
1927-1928

Edwin A. Ziegler
Pennsylvania State College
1928-1929

Frank D. Kern
Pennsylvania State College
1929-1930

Robert T. Hance
University of Pennsylvania
1930-1931